(4) If such person fulfils the conditions imposed under subsection (3), during the period stipulated for fulfilling such conditions, the Attorney General shall not present a
25 fresh indictment against the accused thereafter on the same charges in the original indictment.

(5) If the accused fails without valid excuse to comply with the said conditions, the Attorney General may file a fresh indictment against the accused on the same charges in 30 the original indictment and proceed to prosecute the accused after the lapse of the period given for the accused to fulfil such conditions.

78. If the trial against a person remanded under this Act has not been concluded after the expiration of one year from the date of filing the indictment, the Judge of the High Court before whom the trial is pending, or is held shall release
5 such person on bail, unless the delay in the completion of the trial can be attributed to the conduct of the accused or his Attorney-at-Law:

Grant of bail during High Court trial

Provided however, a person who is suspected or accused to have committed or have committed an offence punishable
10 with death or life imprisonment under this Act shall not be released on bail by a Judge of the High Court except in exceptional circumstances.

79. Notwithstanding an appeal made against a conviction or the sentence imposed on a person under this Act, the 15 Court of Appeal may in exceptional circumstances release on bail such person subject to such conditions as the Court of Appeal may deem fit:

Bail on exceptional circumstances

Provided however, where an appeal has been made by a person on whom the death sentence has been imposed for an 20 offence committed under this Act, such sentence shall not be executed on such person until an appeal made under this section has been determined and such person shall be kept in prison on remand until such time.

PART IX

25 ADMISSIBILITY OF STATEMENTS

80. (1) A statement made by any person to a Magistrate under this Act, shall be admissible against such person, subject to the provisions specified in subsection (2) and to the provisions of section 24 of the Evidence Ordinance.

Statements made to a Magistrate

30 (2) (a) A person shall not be legally bound to make a statement or produce an affidavit implicating or incriminating himself in the commission of an offence.

(b) Any person who is to be interviewed and his statement is to be recorded, shall have the right, if he so wishes, to have access to, or communicate with, an Attorney-at-Law and obtain legal advice prior to such interview.

5 (c) A Magistrate seeking to record a statement, shall inform the person being interviewed of his rights under this Act prior to such interview.

(d) If the person whose statement being recorded at the interview does not understand the language being spoken,
10 the services of an interpreter shall be obtained and the interview shall be conducted in a language that could be understood by such person.

(e) A translation of the statement shall be transcribed together with the corresponding questions, and kept for future
15 verifications.

(f) The interview shall wherever possible be audio-visually recorded.

81. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, a confession made to a Magistrate by a 20 person accused of having committed an offence under this Act, shall not be admissible in evidence against such person, unless-

(a) the Magistrate who recorded such confession had immediately prior to and soon after recording the 25 statement, cause the person who made the statement to be examined by a Government forensic medical specialist; and

(b) the report of the forensic medical specialist is produced by the prosecuting authority, during the 30 vire-dire inquiry, that may be conducted for verifying the admissibility of the confessional statement.

Pre-conditions to be satisfied for admissibility of a confession made to a Magistrate

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS ORDERS

82. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any other written law, where the President has reasonable grounds to believe that any organization is engaged in any act amounting to an offence under this Act, or is acting in an unlawful manner prejudicial to the national security of Sri Lanka or any other country, he may by order published in the Gazette, (hereinafter referred to as "Proscription Order") proscribe such organization in terms of the provisions of this Act.

President to make Proscription
Orders

(2) A Proscription Order may be made by the President, for giving effect to-

- (a) a recommendation made by the Inspector General of Police; or
- (b) a request made by the Government of any foreign country to the Government of Sri Lanka.

(3) A Proscription Order may include one or more of the following prohibitions:-

- (a) prohibiting any person being a member of such organization;
- (b) prohibiting such organization recruiting members to such organization;
- (c) prohibiting any person acting in furtherance of the objectives of such organization;
- (d) prohibition on conducting meetings, activities and programmes by such organization;
- (e) prohibition on the use or mobilization of bank accounts and other financial depositories of such organization;

- (f) prohibition to entering into contracts;
- (g) prohibition on raising of funds and receiving grants and bequests;
- 5 (h) prohibition to transferring funds and assets of the organization;
- (i) prohibition for lobbying and canvassing on behalf of such organization; or
- 10 (j) prohibiting any person by publication of any material in furtherance of the objects of such organization.

(4) Any prohibition, restriction, suspension or sanction, issued under any other written law in respect of an organization in respect of which a Proscription Order has been issued under subsection (1), shall continue to be in 15 operation, without prejudice to any such Proscription Order issued under subsection (1).

(5) Immediately after publication of a Proscription Order in the Gazette, it shall be communicated to the organization in respect of which such Proscription Order has been issued,
20 and be immediately informed to the members and employees of such organization together with reasons therefor, by way of direct communication, whenever such communication is possible. A public announcement of such Order shall also be made.

25 (6) The President may, on an application made by a person or an organization aggrieved by a Proscription Order issued under subsection (1), review or cancel such Order after considering the representations of such person or organization.

30 (7) (a) A Proscription Order made under this section may be initially issued for a period of one year.

(b) On the lapse of the period of one year, the President may, taking into account, the contemporary and reliable information and security needs, extend any such Order for further periods not exceeding one year at a time.

5 (8) Any person or organization aggrieved by a Proscription Order or any extension thereof, shall be entitled to make an application to the Court of Appeal seeking revision or revocation of such Order.

10 83. (1) Where on a recommendation made by the Inspector General of Police, the President has reasonable grounds to believe, that any person has committed, or is making preparation, to commit an offence under this Act, and the conduct of such person can be investigated without him being arrested, and if the President is of the opinion that it is 15 necessary to do so, the President may, on application made to the High Court and upon obtaining the sanction of such Court, make an order in writing (hereinafter referred to as "Restriction Order") imposing such restrictions, as shall be specified in that order, for a period not exceeding one month.

President to make Restriction
Orders

20 (2) A Restriction Order made under subsection (1) may include restrictions on -

- (a) the movement outside the place of residence;
- (b) travelling overseas;
- (c) travelling within Sri Lanka;
- 25 (d) travelling outside the normal route between the place of residence and place of employment;
- (e) the communication or association, or both, with particular persons as shall be specified in the Order; or
- 30 (f) engaging in certain specified activities that may facilitate the commission of an offence under this Act.

(3) Any such Restriction Order may require the suspect to report to any police station on a specified date, or at specified periodic intervals.

(4) A Restriction Order under subsection (1) shall be made,
5 only if such Order-

(a) is necessary for the prevention of the commission of an offence under this Act;

(b) is necessary to conduct investigations into the commission of an offence under this Act;

10 (c) is proportionate to the offence alleged to have committed or likely to be committed under this Act; and

(d) does not amount to an arbitrary deprivation of liberty or restriction on the exercise of Fundamental 15 Rights, in terms of the provisions of the Constitution.

(5) The court shall cause any such Restriction Order to be served on the person in respect of whom such Order was made, and require the Inspector General of police to take 20 necessary steps to enforce any such Order and ensure compliance therewith.

(6) (a) The Inspector General of Police shall cause, the statements of the person in respect of whom the Restriction Order was made, to be recorded, within one week of making
25 thereof and submit it to the President, enabling the President to determine whether the said Order shall be revoked or varied.

(b) Prior to recording the statement, the relevant person shall be informed of his rights under this Act, and be informed
30 of the grounds for making the Restriction Order.

(c) Prior to recording the statement, the relevant person shall be permitted if he so requests, to have access to, or confidential communication with, an Attorney-at-Law.

5 (d) The interview shall be conducted and the statement shall be recorded in a language understood by the person being interviewed, with the services of an interpreter obtained where necessary:

10 Provided however, where the services of an interpreter is obtained, the interview shall be recorded with its translation, and be transcribed, and preserved, for future verification.

(e) Wherever possible, the interview shall be audio-visually recorded.

15 (7) Any person who willfully acts in contravention of a Restriction Order made under this Act, commits an offence, and shall upon conviction by the High Court be liable to imprisonment which may extend to three years and to a fine not exceeding rupees three hundred thousand.

20 (8) The President shall review a Restriction Order made under this section in every month and extend the period thereof, if necessary.

(9) The aggregate period of any Restriction Order shall not exceed six months.

25 (10) The person in respect of whom a Restriction Order or an extension thereof has been made, or an Attorney-at-Law on his behalf, may appeal against such Order to the Court of Appeal, seeking revision or revocation of such Order.

30 (11) The Court of Appeal shall dispose of any such application within one month of the date of preferring such appeal, considering the grounds of appeal and the reasons assigned by the President and the Inspector General of Police, for making such Order.

84. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Public Security Ordinance (Chapter 140), the President may by Order published in the Gazette (hereinafter referred to as a "Curfew Order") declare curfew under this Act, for a period specified in such Order, either to the entirety or part of Sri Lanka including its territorial waters and air space, for the purposes referred to in subsection (2) and subject to the provisions of subsection (3).

(2) The President may make a Curfew Order, for the purposes of -

- (a) controlling, detecting or investigating the occurrence of systematic and widespread committing of terrorism and other offences under this Act;
- (b) for the protection of national or public security from terrorism and other offences under this Act; or
- (c) to prevent the systematic and widespread committing of offences under this Act.

(3) (a) The maximum period of any Curfew Order shall not exceed twenty-four hours at a time.

(b) There shall be an interval of a minimum period of three hours between two periods of Curfew.

(4) A Curfew Order may be made subject to such exemptions that may be imposed to provide for humanitarian needs.

(5) Any such Curfew Order, shall-

- (a) specify categories of persons who are exempted from the application of such Order;
- (b) specify any person who may be authorized to issue permits-

- (i) exempting any person or persons from adhering to the Curfew Order; and
- (ii) authorizing such person or persons to travel from one place to another, due to the need of maintaining essential services and supplies, emergency requirements and humanitarian needs, as may be specified in such permit.
